Decently written memoir, emphasizing the Duke's early work as Prince of Wales. He kept a very busy schedule with extensive travel representing his father King George V, but its unlikely that he worked any harder than an industrial laborer of his time. The memoir ignored all of his adulterous love affairs prior to his meeting Wallace Simpson.

The Lion King: A Memoir with Don Hahn | Making of the Movie
Historians also believe that Anna's own tales of her time in Bangkok have, along with her back story, been partly fabricated, perhaps to make her memoirs more interesting. The King and I may be an interesting movie that contains elements of Thai history and culture , but it is severely lacking when it comes to being factually correct.
