Absent A Novel

The novel reads well, smooth and catching, full of interesting characters and surprises. A Absent, the book's name in the English translation, is the first Iraqi novel I have read. I am very grateful for this view into Iraqi life during the 90's, a country deeply wounded by past wars and suffering greatly from sanctions.

Absent: A Novel by Betool Khedairi - Goodreads

For a book that is mere 180 pages long, Absent is surprisingly heart-wrenching. It is a poignant story about coming to terms with death, accepting things and moving on. Although short, Absent has many great qualities, like Katie Williams ' simple, yet beautiful writing and many subtle messages that delicately, but firmly teach us the truths about life.
