Albion's Seed: Four British Folkways in America (America ... After reading Albion's Seed, I decided to write a review about each of the Four British Folkways that author David Hackett Fischer discusses in the book. Since the reviews are considerably longer than most book reviews I write, I created this page to organize the theories and ideas laid out in the book. What is...

Albion's Seed: Four British Folkways in America by David ... "Albion's Seed" is a classic work of ethnography. It is refreshing to read because a book like it could not be written today (it was published in 1989). It's not that the book has any political angle. Rather, it's that it totally fails to acknowledge today's left-liberal preoccupations, in particular the fictive primacy of "identity" and "inclusion" (used, of course, either ...
