She has delivered a thrilling, clever, and incredibly satisfying conclusion, one that is both totally unexpected and redefines the two previous books. In short, Ancillary Mercy is an absolute delight. Like Sword, Mercy starts off at a slow jog, reintroducing readers to the world and characters at a measured pace. Breq, once the many-bodied artificial mind in control of a starship, now reduced to a single, frail human form, spent book one on a mission to kill Anaander Mianaai, the
