To make it to yes, you need to choose resume buzzwords that count. The best buzzwords describe your abilities, match them to the job qualifications, and show that you're a better fit for the position than the other candidates. Bad resume buzzwords, on the other hand, waste everyone's time — especially yours. Let's start by looking at what to avoid.

List of buzzwords - Wikipedia

Each industry comes with its own buzzwords. When you're outside of the field, this jargon can be off-putting—like a secret code keeping you from following the conversation. But if you're in the know, and the jargon is familiar, using it during conversations is a bit like a secret handshake—it lets interviewers know you really get the industry.
