Are We There Yet, Daddy? by Walters, Virginia ...

They would often ask, "Are we there yet, Daddy?" My answer was, "No, but we're getting closer." In recent years, I find myself asking God a similar question about the End Times. I want to know if we're near the time when believers will be taken up in the next Rapture event. I ask Him: "Are we there yet, Daddy?" And He answers me, "No, but we're getting closer."

(Numbers 11:14-15) "Daddy, are we there yet?" Can you imagine hearing that well-worn phrase from a couple of million children? But the commentators looked closely at the Hebrew text and saw it does not say that "the people complained," but that "the people were like complainers." The people were not actually complaining out loud: They were just ...
