Articulating Design Decisions: Communicate with ...

And, in many cases, how you communicate about your work with stakeholders, clients, and other non-designers is more critical than the designs themselves—simply because the most articulate person usually wins. This practical guide focuses on principles, tactics, and actionable methods for presenting your designs.

Articulating Design Decisions - O'Reilly Media

Being articulate can make you successful in any area of life. The key to being articulate is to understand both the message you want to communicate and the response you want in return. The way to be articulate about design is to offer a message that communicates why we did what we did in order to help stakeholders see our reasoning. If we aren't able to convince stakeholders that our ...
