etzlersplay – As Flies to Whatless Boys

As Flies to Whatless Boys strikes me as presenting a complicated and nuanced picture of technology to be more precise, technologies. I think we might read much of its actions, and time periods, ruminations upon the ways in which we are embedded, perhaps unevenly, within various technologies which impact our life— for instance the differences between a trans-Ocean letter circa 1845

One does not read As Flies to Whatless Boys, but rather feels and smells and tastes it. The book entertains, informs, and provokes a depth of thought rarely achieved in modern literature. Huron romantic, erotic, it proves difficult to set aside. As Flies to Whatless Boys may be a novel in form, but it is pure poetry in spirit.
