Ash by Malinda Lo. Inside this LGBTQ+ retelling of Cinderella, Ash is consumed with despair when her dad dies and she is left at the mercy of- you guessed it - her cruel stepmother. Ash finds delight in rereading fairytales her mother used to inform her, hoping that the fairies from these stories will steal her off.

Malinda Lo - Author of ASH and other novels
I was utterly absorbed in Malinda Lo's YA novel, partly inspired by her family's past it also draws on a wealth of research into 1950s lesbian life. Set in San Francisco in 1954, it features an extremely vivid reimagining of the city's thriving, lesbian subculture seen through the eyes of Chinese American teenager Lily Hu.
