This is Lego, I don't think I need to go over the quality of the product, it's top notch as always. No stickers in this one, be that good or bad for you, this model just doesn't need any. A few printed parts though, which are good quality. I do like the figures that come with it too, but the ability to fit 3 in the head is a welcome feature too.

Overall, the difficulty of figuring out the wordless instructions for the mini-builds and putting together often-complex models makes me think about the "ages 5+" designation for the LEGO City Advent Calendar. Building these models was a fun challenge for me, but they might be frustrating for a child on the younger side of the age ...

Review: 2021 LEGO Advent Calendars - BRICK ARCHITECT

Odd as it sounds, this is the fourth X-Wing, and the fourth design for an X-Wing they've done for the Advent Calendars. 2011 used a Technic brick with tiles on the side. 2019's Halloween-Wing had a 1x2 tile on the belly. 2020 had a 1x1x2/3 double slope for the nose cone.
