Barracuda by Christos Tsiolkas – review | Books | The Guardian

Australian novelist Tsiolkas (The Slap, 2008, etc.) serves up a bracing poolside critique of Antipodean mores. The trope of athletic contest as coming-of-age backdrop is an old one, though more seen in film than literature since the days of The Loneliness of the Long-Distance Runner. Tsiolkas' latest takes an athletically gifted young man—Danny here, Dan there, Barracuda everywhere, thanks ...
