Just completed the set of Beatrix Rose in Hong Kong series and was not disappointed. Great read, exciting characters and plenty of action that keeps the story moving along at a good pace. Seeing HK through Beatrix's eyes added to the excitement of the story as it is a captivating and exciting part of the world.

Fortunately I had learned about Beatrix Rose in the 4th book in Milton's series, Ghost, and I immediately found volume 1 of Beatrix Rose's Hong Kong stories and bought it. Beatrix is similar to John in that they both had previously worked as secret assassins for the British government and both had undergone the same training.

The Hong Kong Stories: A Beatrix
Rose Thriller - Mark Dawson

The three stories in this collection are standalone adventures of Beatrix Rose, but equally they all follow on to form a great narrative of her encounters with the triads in Hong Kong, where she has gone to drop off the radar, and they are a sort of collective prequel to the main trilogy of books about her.
