Laurence Wylie (Harvard Memoriam Page) Laurence Wylie was born in Indianapolis on November 19, 1909. He was the son of a Methodist minister of Scotch-Irish descent; his mother was of English Quaker stock. He acquired the nickname Red because of his hair.

Laurence Wylie, 85, Scholar And Seeker of the French Soul ...

Wylie has a fine sense of the way that French people adapt these gestures to the circumstances. What started as a class project in Paris, focusing on gesture from an anthropological point of view, has become an amusing and instructive way to look at French culture...and learn how to shrug like Belmondo.
