Bellman & Black: Diane Setterfield, Daniel Philpott ...

William Bellman is an interesting man and I enjoyed learning about the fabric mill and later the attention to detail when he opens Bellman & Black, a store that caters to the dead. In other words, if someone dies, Bellman & Black has everything a family needs for the funeral and mourning periods.

BELLMAN & BLACK by Diane Setterfield | Kirkus Reviews

As I mentioned in my Hallowe'er/ Samhain post, I have been reading Bellman & Black, by Diane Setterfield. I anticipated enjoying this book greatly, based on my experience of The Thirteenth Tale. Unfortunately, that anticipation was misplaced. In most book reviews, I hesitate to give away too much, but in this instance it doesn't make...

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Bellman & Black: A Novel

Even with all its strangeness, Bellman & Black never loses sight of its emotional core, and that makes it a deeply affecting journey. Quite simply, Setterfield has done it again. ALSO IN BOOKPAGE: Read our Meet the Author interview with Diane Setterfield for Bellman & Black.

Bellman & Black | The Book Adept

"Bellman and Black basically has one story throughout the entire book. Only one character is thoroughly developed in "Bellman and Black". With only one character developed this lends to only one point of view. There is a lot of detail regarding the work that Bellman oversees. I suspect that will bore quite a few people.

'Bellman & Black,' by Diane Setterfield - The Washington Post

Bellman kept offering Black money but money is of no importance to Black. Black thinks Bellman is a tragic tale, a human who tried desperately to be without Thought or Memory. Black was trying to get Bellman to face life, so Bellman's guilt, grief and pain could fly away from the fields of his heart, taking (most of) the darkness with them ...
