James Tabor's blind descent: the quest to discover the deepest place on earth, while written about an immensely fascinating subject, leaves much to be desired. Like many books of its ilk, it perhaps would have been a more cohesive and compelling read if featured as a lengthy magazine article. The narrative focuses on the efforts of two teams to explore and map what each is hoping to be the deepest cave on earth (Chev é in the Oaxacan state of Mexico and Krubera in the Republic of Georgia).

In Blind Descent, Tabor moves from mountaineering to cave diving. The exploration of "super caves" is as dangerous as high-altitude mountaineering but provides unique challenges of its own. The exploration of "super
