Briefs Encountered

Briefs Encountered is another wonderfully wicked and camp novel by Julian Clary. The story revolves around Goldenhurst, a big house in the Kent countryside owned by both Noel Coward and his long term partner, Jack and then set in in the present where the house is owned by film star and Noel Coward fan, Richard Stent and his partner Fran.

Briefs Encountered is very much split into two streams - one of Noel and his lover Jack back in the day and one of actor Richard and his lover Fran in the here and now. Both streams are linked in the fact that they take place in Coward's Kent home - owned by NC back in the day, Richard in the present and with the previous owner being none other than Julian Clary himself.
