Although Captive In The Dark has intense, non-consensual sexual activity and other physical violence, the author provides a compelling story that provides a greater focus for the reader than just scene after scene of gratuitous sex - to which many other such types of books are almost limited.

This book is wrong in so many ways, but that's what made it such an intense and INCREDIBLE read. Captive in the Dark is raw, it's disturbing, it's heartbreaking, it's disgusting.. and yet.. it's intense, bizarrely hopeful, and awesomely morbid @_@ I almost can't believe that this book was only 253 pages.

Captive in the Dark: The Dark Duet (Volume 1) I read this... back in December of 2011! After reading and loving Christian Grey, I was adamantly looking for more “like him”. Back when I was fairly “new” to the darker side of books. Well, I mean... I’m quite familiar with horror novels. Love them even.
