The Honda Civic Si is a sport compact trim of Civic by Honda. The Si trim was introduced for the third generation of Honda Civics in both Japan and North America. In Canada and elsewhere, the Si was introduced for the sixth and seventh generations, and the Si trim was equivalent to the USDM EX model. For the Japanese and European markets, the Civic Type R was adopted as the high-performance variant. The Civic Type R was first introduced as the EK9 hatch for Japan in 1996 and then with the EP3 hatch

The Honda Civic is a line of cars manufactured by Honda. Originally a subcompact, the Civic has gone through several generational changes, becoming both larger and more upscale, moving into the mid-size car class. Industry guidelines for vehicle size class stipulate a car having combined passenger and cargo room of 110 to 119.9 cubic feet is considered a mid-size car, and as such the tenth generation Civic sedan is a mid-size car, although it still competes in the compact class.
