Mazzola 's Counterpoint Theory - Dmitri Tymoczko

Despite my belief that counterpoint is best studied through tonal exercises (it is easier for a beginner to work within a familiar framework than to define a coherent language from scratch), the principles defined here will not be entirely limited to tonal music. The thoughtful reader will quickly see applications which do not depend on tonality.

It 's obviously not haha. It 's an introduction to counterpoint for music novices. I 'd recommend this for any student 12 years of age to freshman year of college, or adults who have never studied music formally. In short it 's a contemporary book on traditional counterpoint, not at all a book on "contemporary counterpoint".
