Crisis of Conscience is not a book you should quote or recommend to a Witness unless you know that they have substantial doubts about the Watchtower religion. Even if that situation, it's important to remember all the negative things the Watchtower has said about Ray Franz and his book, things that may scare Witnesses from the book even if they have substantial doubts about the religion.

CRISIS OF CONSCIENCE - RAYMOND FRANZ - Bravehost

'Crisis' tells the story of Ray Franz, who served for many years in the headquarters of the Jehovah's Witnesses, eventually ending up on the 'Governing Body', a small group of men that direct the organisation. Over time, he became more concerned about how unthinking compliance with doctrine was promoted over following one's Christian conscience.
