The beauty of many of the most popular ancient grains (including quinoa, couscous and bulgur) is that they can add oomph to many a spring dish, without adding weight or bulk. They liven up wraps and add texture when tossed into wraps and can even be the star of any dish. Sure, they may seem almost insignificant on their own, but when tossed with flavourful ingredients like lemon ...

Cuscus E Bulgur Chez Moi

When I recently asked my husband if he'd like tabouli, a salad made of parsley, mint, scallions, bulgur, tomatoes, cucumbers and a lemony dressing, he responded that we'd just had it.. But what he referred to was couscous salad.. Sure the dishes contained similar vegetables. However, I pointed out that bulgur is the grain in tabouli, while couscous is in the salad of the same name.

What is the Difference Between Bulgur and Couscous?

although this tasted OK, it really didn't taste any different from the wheat pilaf that comes in a box (near East) and the boxed pilaf takes less time to make.
