Dear Clare, When we, book bloggers, finish a book, we often start thinking about the best way to review it. We want our opinion to be clear. We want to convey what happened to us between the opening and the ending page of the author's work. When I put down After The End, I understood a review wouldn't do. This is why I am writing you a letter.

Introduction to Dear Clare | Clare Short

Dear Clare, My friend did me a favor and dropped me off at Ontario Airport, which was super nice. He used my car to drop me and pick me up. I got in late and it was dark. I noticed the next morning that there was a big gash above my back left tire. It is at least ten inches long. There is no way he didn't see it but he didn't mention it to me.
