Dear Mrs Bird

At the heart and soul Dear Mrs Bird is Emmeline Lake, a young woman who gently reminds the reader of the daily acts of heroism, the stoicism, the friendships and the bravery of the British during the turbulent times of the Luftwaffe assault.

Dear Mrs. Bird Summary & Study Guide

Dear Mrs. Bird is a quick read and has quite a lighthearthed tone for WW11 historical fiction. It has an old-fashioned vibe and uses the language of the time period effectively to enhance sense of place. Even though the tone is light, the realities of war are not avoided.

Dear Mrs. Bird (Audiobook) by AJ Pearce | Audible.com

"Emmeline Lake, the heroine of Dear Mrs. Bird, is the most endearing character to emerge from the world of British fiction since Bridget Jones. She's funny, she's indefatigable, and she faces the worst of circumstances with the pluckiest of resolves.

Dear Mrs Bird A.J. Pearce. A beautiful tale of female friendship set in London during the Blitz. If there was anything I wanted most in the world (other, of course, than for the war to end and Hitler to die a quite grisly death), it was to be a journalist. Or to be precise, what people in the know referred to as a Lady War Correspondent.

The Richard & Judy Book Club Pick and Sunday Times Bestseller, Dear Mrs Bird, now with a beautiful festive design for the Christmas season. London, 1941. Amid the falling bombs Emmeline Lake dreams of becoming a fearless Lady War Correspondent.

Dear Mrs Bird by A.J. Pearce - BookGen Book Review

Dear Mrs. Bird is ludicrously predictable in plot and unbearably juvenile in tone, rather like a Girl Guide story of a plucky young woman. I suppose the narrator is trying to do justice to the cliched material, but I found I could not stand listening to it.
