Death in the Clouds (Hercule Poirot, #12) by Agatha Christie

Death in the Clouds is by far one of my favoritest (I adknowledge the poor grammar) of Agatha Christie's books. I guessed who did it fairly quickly, but I still think it was something worth reading, despite the fact it had little to do with wasps (abnormally large or otherwise), which was much to my dismay. It's a great book. Read it!
