1. Traditional Definition of Lying. There is no universally accepted definition of lying to others. The dictionary definition of lying is “to make a false statement with the intention to deceive” (OED 1989) but there are numerous problems with this definition. It is both too narrow, since it requires falsity, and too broad, since it allows for lying about something other than what is being ...

Terminology. The word slave arrived in English via the Old French sclave. In Medieval Latin the word was sclavus and in Byzantine Greek ???????. Use of the word arose during the Early Medieval Period, when Slavs from Central and Eastern Europe were frequently enslaved by Moors from the Iberian Peninsula and North Africa.. There is a dispute among historians about whether terms such as ...
