Well, it's over a week overdo, but I'm still glowing from the San Francisco Giants' World Series win. It was a strange experience living in Boulder, Colorado (where very few people seem to even know there's a baseball team called the Giants) during the World Series instead of San Francisco, where I lived the last two times the Giants won (2012 and 1010).

We found Russian Peter digging his potatoes. We were glad to go in and get warm by his kitchen stove and to see his squashes and Christmas melons, heaped in the storeroom for winter. As we rode away with the spade, Antonia suggested that we stop at the prairie-dog town and dig into one of the holes.
