Max said that you know twice the grammar that you think you do. If you are a native speaker, all you really need to add to your current knowledge is the system by which grammar works. And so I have learned Max's system and I recommend it to you. If that's sufficient for you to add 'Doing Grammar' to your cart, great. But there's more.

Doing Grammar By Max Morenberg

Finally, he uses sentence diagramming, which even in my college grammar class, we don't even do, so I doubt others would. All in all, it's a fairly understandable piece, and morenberg is a staple in grammar, but this book is showing its age. Doesn't change that I'll use this in my classroom, like the teachers and professors before me.
