Oz History: The Wicked Witch of The East. The Wicked Witch of the East appeared to have a humble dwelling. In Baum's Oz book titled The Tin Woodman of Oz, published in 1918, more of her history is revealed. And instead of a giant castle or fancy mansion, she appears to have a small standard cottage house deep within the Munchkin forest and has one beautiful Munchkin maid named Nimmie Amee who ...

In various cultural worldviews, witchcraft is the use of magic or supernatural powers. A practitioner of witchcraft is a witch. In medieval and early modern Europe, where the term witchcraft originated, accused witches were usually women who were believed to have attacked their own community. Witchcraft was seen as immoral and often thought to involve communion with evil beings.

Right: we're Witches, of the Tribe of Witches. Ash, what's our lede, then? Pagan, yes. We're Witch by thede, Pagan by lede. So “ thede ” is a sub-group of “ lede. ” Both are peoples, categories of being, but one term is more inclusive than the other. In any given lede, there will always be many different thedes. Siffrith? Oh, good question.
