Robert C. Solomon (ed.), Existentialism - PhilPapers

Solomon covers different concepts within existentialism including freedom and responsibility, and continually points out its relevance to one's everyday experience. It is a broad survey of ways about how to think about ourselves and our place in the world which, if you found this as interesting as I did, will have you thinking for hours after listening.

Existentialism - Google Books

By Robert Solomon [Existentialism] is an attitude that recognizes the unresolvable confusion of the human world, yet resists the all-too-human temptation to resolve the confusion by grasping toward whatever appears or can be made to appear firm or familiar - reason, God, nation, authority, history, work, tradition, or the "other-wordly," whether Plato, Christianity, or utopian fantasy.
