In a complete departure from her usual writings, Beth Bolden visits the world of the fairy tale. With Yours, Forever After, she gives the reader an utterly compelling and truly delightful romance between a naive young Prince and a world-weary jaded man who's long given up on his royal birth. Throw in a sarcastic and snooty unicorn and this has all the makings of a wonderful tale of heroes and ...

Honesty with self. I agree with that, and a lot of courage to keep up the fight. Pain no longer defines me nor does the face in the mirror. You can' move forward with chronic pain blocking your path. Learning to push past that blockade takes courage. Slipping into a depression is easy. It's getting out of it that is hard.
