I just finished the second book in the 299 Days series and have already moved onto the third. For those that don't know 299 Days is an epic book series written by Glen Tate about a collapse of the United States. Glen and the character Grant in the book both have an inside track into government corruption and wrong doings.

299 Days: The Preparation (Volume 1): Glen Tate ...

I was very disappointed with '299 Days: The Preparation'. I'll start by saying that I really like the premise. It's a solid idea which could be good, maybe the whole series is, but this book is just poor. Here are the issues I have with this book: 1) The plot doesn't go anywhere.
