Child - God's Lent Child - Unknown
God, show me that you're here. Help me to trust that you are listening, and find comfort in the words of other believers, in the Bible, in strengthening my faith. I know you are a merciful God. Please remind me of this, and remind me that you'll never leave me when I feel myself doubt. Amen. For when you're scared.

Does God care about everything in my life, even the little ...
God does indeed care about the "little things" in our lives, because He cares about us. Compared to Him and His glory, our whole lives are made up of those "little things." Psalm 139:17-18 says, "How precious to me are your thoughts, O God!

God absolutely cares about the little things that happen in our lives. To gain some perspective, we must first understand that everything is little compared to God; He created the entire universe. But the question of whether God cares is more fundamentally about the depth of His love than it is about the breadth of His power or the importance of a particular detail.

Does God care about the little things that happen in our ...
God is God alone (Isaiah 37:16). We have never been God, we are not God now, and we never will be God. Jesus was fully God and fully man (a combination called the hypostatic union). If the "little gods" hypothesis is accepted, it imputes to Jesus a lesser divinity of some kind; He became a "little god" like us.
