God gave the Israelites the tabernacle, a temporary and portable dwelling for His glory, and taught them how to approach and worship Him before He led them to their reward—the promised land. Using the tabernacle and its articles (altar, lampstands, etc.) as a guide, Donna teaches readers how to interact with God in that secret place of true intimacy that leads to worship.

A Temple Whom Jesus Christ is Dwelling is Holy Inside and ...

A temple means a dwelling place of God or the house of God. See what is a church and what is a temple. God does not dwell in non-living things without destiny but He uses them for a purpose. God dwells in humans with destiny. The building or the place we call as the 'church' is not God's temple.

Temples and Divine Presence in the Ancient Near East

Even before the fire, I've been thinking about cathedrals and temples and the dwelling place of God. In my current Bible study we've been reading the account in First Kings of Solomon building the Temple—a dwelling place for the God of Israel. For thousands of years, humanity has been constructing altars and buildings to worship God.

Temples and Divine Presence in the Ancient Near East

The word "temple" in the Old Testament always means the material temple; in the Gospels our Lord "spoke of the temple of his body;" in the rest of the New Testament the body of every baptized Christian is the temple of God (1 Corinthians 6:16), because "God dwelleth in him" (1 John 4:16; comp. John 14:23).
