This week's Gospel is a key support of Trinitarian doctrine in its association with baptism. Jesus (the Son) has come to the Jordan. The voice of God the Father acknowledges his delight in the obedience of his Son. The Spirit descends like a dove and comes to rest on Jesus. The three persons of the Trinity are each identified.

Today's Gospel: Matthew 1:18-24. Happy Fourth Sunday of Advent! Today's Gospel reading addresses, in a round-about way, themes of both love and peace, through the actions of one silent, but powerful man. Not much is known about Joseph, and he remains silent in the Gospels.

Gospel Reflection For The Sunday

Preparation for Sunday Scripture Readings. Prepare a prayer space and include on it a bowl with holy water and the Bible open to today's Gospel. As you begin, invite the children to notice the prayer space that you have prepared. Ask them what they see there. Point out that the water in the dish is holy water.

Gospel Reflections, Year C (Monthly Listing) | RCLB Lectionary

This Sunday we are at the end of the church's calendar and we are celebrating the Solemnity of Christ the King. The Gospel depicts the kingship of Jesus that is at odds with our own idea of worldly kingship. Jesus' kingship is a kingship of Obedience, of Humility, of Servanthood and of Suffering and Sacrifice.
