A combination of floral and animal designs arranged in four registers decorates the body of the Corinthian black-figure olpe, or pitcher. The four superimposed friezes repeat many of the animals that form the Corinthian vase-painter's standard repertoire: lions, panthers, goats, deer, bulls, boars, swans.

Table of Roman Equivalentents of Greek Gods

Ancient Greek thought is the essential wellspring from which the intellectual, ethical, and political civilization of the West draws and to which, even today, we repeatedly return. In more than sixty essays by an international team of scholars, this volume explores the full breadth and reach of Greek thought -- investigating what the Greeks knew as well as what they thought about what they ...
