I read "Night" a while ago by Ellie Wiesel. In the beginning of his story he said that there was this man (I'm not sure about his name or if it was a woman?), who warned the Jews about a war. Some people made fun of him, some didn't even care, but some listened and went away from Germany. This was before the actual Holocaust. My question: Do you know of anyone who listened to the warning or left ...

36 Questions & Answers About the Holocaust

The question of the Holocaust, as a human catastrophe, must be separated from the creation of the state of Israel and, more particularly, from its policies. The hearts and minds of Palestinians and Israelis are burdened by sacred histories, by traditions of pain, by superstitions about the future, so much so that it is difficult for one to see the suffering of the other, now and in history.

Quiz: World War II - The Holocaust

The Holocaust was the systematic persecution and murder of approximately six million Jews by the Nazi regime and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945. The Nazis, who came to power in Germany in January 1933, believed that Germans were "racially superior" and that those deemed "inferior," were an alien threat to the so-called German racial community.
