Honor Student (Honor, #1) by Teresa Mummert (4 star ratings) I carried everything into the living and clicked on the television. The fact that a writer would make constant use of word sentences and sentence fragments left me feeling like I was in a car with a student driver This book was so bad I couldn't get past 40 pages, which was a struggle in itself.

Honor Student was a little bit sexy and a little bit mystery. Despite it's choppy approach and the odd flow between scenes, the story held my attention. I could likely list as many things I didn't like about the characters as I did like about them but when it's all read and done, the book was pretty good.
