Fichera did an excellent job portraying Fred's mixed feelings about where she fit in the world, or which world she wanted. Great family dynamics--the good and the bad. Ryan's best friend? SCARY and demented. I give Hooked by Liz Fichera a 5 for keeping me hooked. 1-5 scale and what it means: 1: I couldn't even finish it / just plain bad

ALPHA reader: 'Hooked' by Liz Fichera

Fichera brings us a story rich with inspiration and such adorable cuteness that puts Hooked in a league of its own. Fredricka Oday is not a typical girl and proof is in her determination to pursue her passion despite opposition. Fred is an amazing athlete, as well as a brave and sweet character.

Hooked 1 Liz Fichera

Liz Fichera's Hooked is a young adult novel that deals out originality like a pro card dealer, but not so much that the reader might be put off by the newness of the topics explored. Fichera brings to light the difficulties that Native Americans may face, especially teenagers that grow up alongside the larger population of caucasian residents.

Amazon.com: Hooked eBook: Liz Fichera: Kindle Store

Hooked is exactly the right title for this one, because hooked is what I was from page one on. Liz Fichera has written a masterpiece about the troubles of high school, acceptance, and how to be yourself. Hooked is a complete story of opposites. There are essentially two different worlds that the characters have known.

HOOKED by Liz Fichera - blogspot.com

Hooked by Liz Fichera combined a beautiful love story of polar opposites with a lot of important issues which were addressed in a natural moving way. I can highly recommend it to all fans of Young Adult Contemporary who love a good romance, a happy ending and a unique setting!

Liz Fichera (Author of Hooked) - Goodreads

♥ Quick Thoughts and Rating: 3 stars! Oh Hooked, you could have been a contender. I was all on-board for the plot of a girl golfer joining an all boys' team and an interracial romance, but Fichera didn't make them her primary focus. For that reason, I think that was what made this book just okay instead of amazing.
