What If You Were the Last Person on Earth?

"Was" or "Were" in the "If" Clause/Conditional. In both sentences above, the "if" clause contains a form of the past tense of the verb. There is one exception to this rule, however. If the verb in the if clause is "to be," use "were," even if the subject of the clause is a third person singular subject (i.e., he, she, it). See the examples below for an illustration of this exception:
