Elizabeth Comack explores the complicated connections between masculinity and violence in the lives of men incarcerated at a provincial prison. Moving between the spaces of 'out there' and 'in here,' the discussion traces the men's lives in terms of their efforts to 'do' masculinity and the place of violence in that undertaking.

Out Here. In There. — Sidsel Endresen & Bugge Wesseltoft ... This advice places an enormous burden on those who are favored by the rules, and it establishes how old is the notion that the servant views any problem in the world as in here, inside oneself, not out there. And if a flaw in the world is to be remedied, to the servant the process of change starts in here, i
