BOOK 2: The Eternity Key Fan-favorite author Bree Despain continues her modern-day romance trilogy inspired by the Greek myth of Persephone and Hades with this second book in her Into the Dark series.

Into the Dark by Karen Rose - Goodreads
I enjoyed Into the Dark, the second Brenna Spector book much more than the first, And She Was. Into the Dark grabbed me in the beginning with intrigue, and had me turning the pages quickly to see the next clue in the story. Twenty-five years ago, Brenna's sister Clea got into a blue car and never returned.

Into the Dark (Into the Dark #1) by Ryan Casey
Into the Dark works as is reading out of order with no previous knowledge of the author or the characters. Of course, I cannot answer how it works as a series and I can't know how different reading it would be, if I had done it in order.

Into the Dark (Brenna Spector, #2) by Alison Gaylin
Into the Dark didn't draw me in quite as much as the first book. I'm not exactly sure why, although as one of my all time favorites Into the Deep was a tough act to follow. I didn't really connect with Niamh like I did Makenzie, which could be it.

Into the Dark (The Cincinnati Series): Karen Rose ...
This book was energy packed, smart, artistic, gritty and dark all rolled into one. The characters were set apart and I felt like this story was a tale told straight from any of Casey's other characters in his most recent novels. I knew Ryan Casey was a great author in his own right because of his wickedly clever mind, but this book surprised me.
