This cartoon guide to psychotherapy is true to its subtitle: A Graphic Guide. For that is exactly what it is. It spreads out across a vast landscape of time (from Empedocles to the Existentialists and beyond) -- and a vast jungle of techniques (at least 60) the confusion that remains contemporary psychotherapy.

Introducing Psychotherapy - A Graphic Guide - Read book online

I found this to be a very succinct and all-encompassing introduction to psychotherapy. It is a "bird's eye view" of it. I liked the lightness and readability; the useful compartmentalization of the different types of psychotherapy and, especially, the very "graphic" easy-to-understand examples of each type.
