2. European Union. The European Union is an economic group consisting of 28 states all located within Europe. All of these states follow the same custom duties for importing clothes coming from non-European Union countries. In this scenario, tariffs with clothes will only take its toll once and are no longer added to the prices of the import clothes once they enter European Union territory.
