Jenny Goes To Sea - New York Review Books
We were both captured by the character of Jenny, the shy but intrepid little cat with the red scarf who joins a community of cats when she is not sharing her life with the Captain, her kind owner. There are old fashioned life lessons to be learned from all these books by Esther Averill, but presented without moralizing, with charm and humor and a sense of life's joyful possibilities.

Jenny Goes To Sea

Jenny Goes to Sea (and the other Jenny books) are worthy read-alouds for young minds -- older children will likely find them a little too quaint. In this book, Jenny and her brothers join their master, Captain Tinker, on a voyage around the world. They only really visit Africa and Asia, however, before returning home to North America.
