Venmurasu - Wikipedia

Jeyamohan is an excellent story teller and in this book he just leaps between multiple dimensions and I would agree it will be overwhelming for most readers. I read this after many years and after reading through some of his fan's reviews and his own explanations in his blog, it gave a totally different perspective.

Jeyamohan has described Venmurasu as a modern novel based on the Mahabharatha, and not just a retelling of the story in modern idiom. Venmurasu is guided by the storyline of the epic and the dynamics of the Indian Puranic tradition, but as a work of literature composed in the twenty-first century, it assumes its own form and aesthetics that place it in a modern context.
