John for Everyone, Part 1: Chapters 1-10

With this chapter we begin a new section of Calvin's Institutes; one which deals with redemption – why we need it and how we receive it. Summary: Calvin begins this section by returning to his argument that we know not only who we once were (perfect pre-fall) but also who we have become (sinful post-fall). This knowledge will not only destroy any self-confidence we have (of being good ...
