The staff at Beadles Land Rover Sidcup were good because They were polite and friendly. I was a little confused after taking delivery of my vehicle that I was unable to find the handbook and didn't know whether it had been serviced or not also explanations about warranty etc.However I am satisfied with the attention I received and would definitely recommend them.

The Series II Land Rover launched in 1958 was larger, heavier and more complex than the original, and there was an ever-present need for higher powered engines. Also, the Rover petrol engines in use at the time, with the archaic Inlet-Over-Exhaust valve layout and were approaching the age of 20 years in design terms. A new, larger petrol engine specifically developed for the Land Rover was needed.
