Posts about leo tolstoy written by elisabethm. As I have written before, Tolstoy considered himself equal to Homer. He was so obsessed with the classics, that he taught himself Ancient Greek in a mere couple of months when he was in his forties, so that he could read them in the original.

Hadji Murad - english literature & literary studies

I could say I got my answer from a book by Leo Tolstoy titled What is Art? (1896), its a book that is dear to me, one could say it changed my life. Perhaps what attracted me to the book was Tolstoy's sincere writing and his dilemma in defining Art, his long search and doubts about what art is, a dilemma that I shared.

LEO TOLSTOY – Gazeta - russiancultureclub.wordpress.com

Leo Tolstoy does a remarkable job of questioning the reasoning and freedom of choice in times of war in this excerpt from his book War and Peace (1983). Tolstoy ponders through historical wars and realizes that there is rarely a singular cause for each war. In most cases, war erupts when a multitude of minor...

Leo Tolstoy – my daily art display

I've completed Book 1 of Leo Tolstoy's War and Peace which takes me to page 344, not quite one fourth of the way through the book. I'm experiencing what I would call a minor phenomenon that I've experienced before in a few other books – books that have numerous characters and story lines woven together.
