I think the strengths of goalball are the lesson plans. Goalball is one of those sports that you have to play to be very familiar with so having those sample lesson plans would be a great tool. A weakness with goalball is that not many kids can play at one time (of course you can adapt this) and it would be a slow process to teach the basics even.

Set up rebound nets against the wall of the gym. Around the net, set up a "forbidden zone" in a semi circle about 10 feet away from the net. Have the students break into as many even groups as you have nets and have them surround the forbidden zone using cones. The students will throw the ball off of the net and catch it when it comes towards them.
