Letters to a Young Sister: DeFINE Your... book by Hill Harper

Dear sister, When I was younger, I always prayed for a sister. I wanted someone that I could relate to, someone who looked up to me, someone I could boss around. And when you were born, I got most of that. You're too hardheaded to let me boss you around, but besides that, you're a pretty cool younger sister.

A Love Letter To My Little Sister | Thought Catalog

Dear Little Sis, If I could speak for most older siblings, I'd have to say we take growing up with our younger counterparts for granted. As I've grown older and matured, I know the true value of having a little sibling. So, I just wanted to say how much I appreciate and love my little sister. Thank you for being a part of my childhood.
